■ Introduction

These guidelines set forth the rules for using the Japanese talk voice library “VoiSona Talk Chis-A” (“Product”) included in the voice creation software “VoiSona Talk” developed by Techno-Speech, Inc. (“Company”).

We hope that you will enjoy your creative activities using this Product after reading these guidelines.

■ Rules for Voice Use (VoiSona Talk “Chis-A” Voice Guidelines)

Audio waveforms generated using this Product may be used free of charge and without the Company’s permission, regardless of whether the use is commercial or non-commercial, by individuals or corporations. (Please note that some forms of use, such as incorporation into other instruments, are prohibited as exceptions. For details, please refer to the “VoiSona Terms of Use.”)

When using audio waveforms generated with this Product, please include a credit of either the product name (“VoiSona Talk Chis-A”) or the character name (“Chis-A”). When providing credit as the character name, please also refer to the “Rules for Character Use” below.

If you have separately obtained permission from the Company to use the audio waveforms without credit, this requirement does not apply.

(Rules for Character Use)

When using the character “Chis-A” (name, settings, visuals, etc.) together with the audio waveforms generated with this Product, please comply with the character usage rules set forth in the “Chis-A Secondary Creation Guidelines.”

(Prohibitions)

Please refrain from the following uses:

- Content that violates public order and standards of decency, or that is antisocial;
- Content biased toward a particular ideology, creed, religion, or political belief;
- Content that harms the honor or dignity of third parties, or infringes on their rights;
- Content that could be misunderstood or misinterpreted as official content planned by the Company;
- Content that seriously damages the image of the Company, its products, or its characters;

- Any other content that the Company deems inappropriate.
